

I strongly feel the "Do not call" law in NJ should remain in effect. It has been a pleasure in our household since this law went into effect and we are no longer interrupted every day, every dinner time, by unwanted solicitors. I pay extra for a private phone line for that reason and was still harassed by those solicitors. This was unfair!